

Erhan ILGIT, Professor of Radiology, graduated from Ankara University, School of Medicine, Ankara, Turkey in 1986.

He had radiology residency and all his academic career in Radiology Department of Gazi University, School of Medicine, Ankara, Turkey. He is the chairman of the Radiology department and head of the IR.

He was the vice-president of Turkish Society of Radiology and president of Turkish Society of Interventional Radiology.

Aortic – vascular interventions, interventional oncology, hepatobiliary interventions and interventional neuroradiology are his main interests and research topics as a fellow of CIRSE.