

"He was graduated from Istanbul University Cerrahpasa School of Medicine in 1997, and completed his radiology residency in Istanbul Education and Research Hospital. Then he worked in the Neuroradiology Division in Yeditepe University. He completed clinical neurointerventional fellowship in Cerrahpasa Medical School, and clinical fellowship of interventional radiology in King's College University Hospitals, UK. Currently he is working in the interventional and neurointerventional sections of University Health Sciences, Istanbul Hospital, as the lead Assoc Prof. He has the competency in Turkish Board of Radiology , Turkish Board in Interventional Radiology and EBIR. He is among the distinguished reviewers of AJR and DIR, and the papers he has authored or co-authored has high reference rates."