

Dr. Madassery is an Assistant Professor of Vascular and Interventional Radiology at Rush University Medical Center in Chicago and Rush Oak Park Hospital. He is the Director of The Advanced Vascular & Interventional Radiology Fellowship at Rush University Medical Center. Also, Dr. Madassery is the Director of the IVC Filter Clinic at Rush. Dr. Madassery received his medical degree from Chicago Medical School at Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine & Science, and his Diagnostic Radiology residency was performed at Rush University Medical Center. He completed his Vascular & Interventional Radiology at Rush University Medical Center as well. Dr. Madassery has authored and co-authored numerous articles and has given many educational presentations around the country. He is on the Standards and Practices Committee within the Society of Interventional Radiology and will be moderating Peripheral Arterial Disease workshops at the annual meeting. A majority of his time is spent on dealing with Critical Limb Ischemia Revascularization and Limb Preservation Management. Other interests include, Complex IVC Filter Retrievals with/without Venous Reconstructions, and Interventional Oncology.